C. E. Byrd High School

Shreveport, Louisiana

In the beginning, 69 years ago, a group of students from Shreveport High School decided to create a year-book. Their first book was successful; it set a standard and became known as the GUSHER. What a respected name it was! It did something that most publications do not accomplish, that is, to pass the test of time. The year now is 1983, the school has changed its name to C. E. Byrd High School, and the book's name is still GUSHER. The word "gusher" expresses an outflowing of riches. This book captures the year 1983 for the Byrd Yellow Jackets. It contains the wins and the losses, the friends made, the spirit felt, and the traditions etched in all of our hearts. In the years to come, when the pages are turned, you will release the golden memories of C. E. Byrd and relive your high school days.

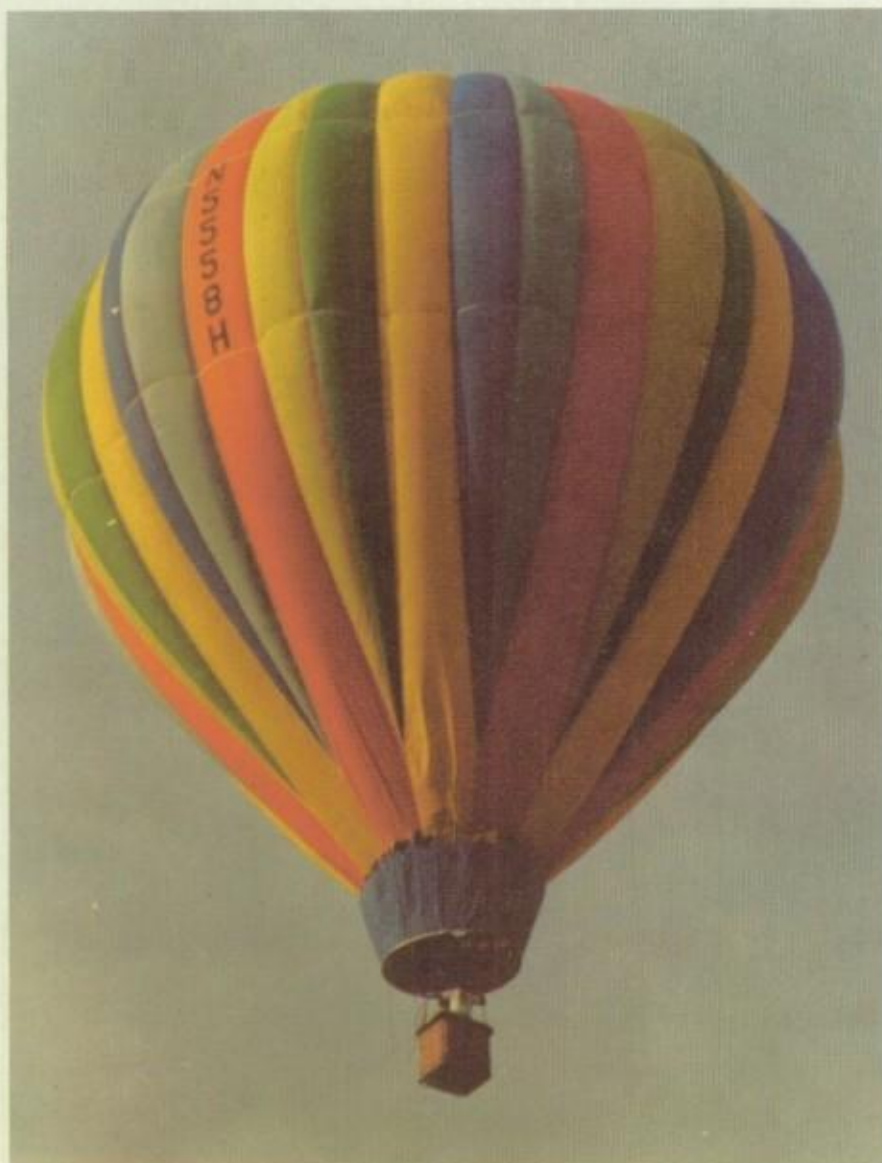

The 1983 GUSHER staff has made this DIARY OF BYRD for you with diligence, patience, hard work, and love. We offer it to you as a landmark in time.

Dear Diary . . .

Many memories have been made
Throughout our marvelous high school days.
All things — both tears and fun —
Will hold our thoughts for years to come.
Those special moments do abound,
With teachers, friends, and events all around.
So much we've learned from books and life's race,
To carry us through each trial we face.
Byrd High has taught us much in many fields.
May we never fail to carry on their high ideals.

My Memories

Bottom right: The cheerleaders were very enthusiastic at pep rallies. Top left: High Life members had fun doing the "Richard Lemon" Show. Top right: Dr. B. L. Shaw spoke to the students on Orientation Day. Middle: Dance Line members performed their very best at pep rallies. Bottom left: Lots of Jacket spirit was shown at football games.

Dear Diary . . .

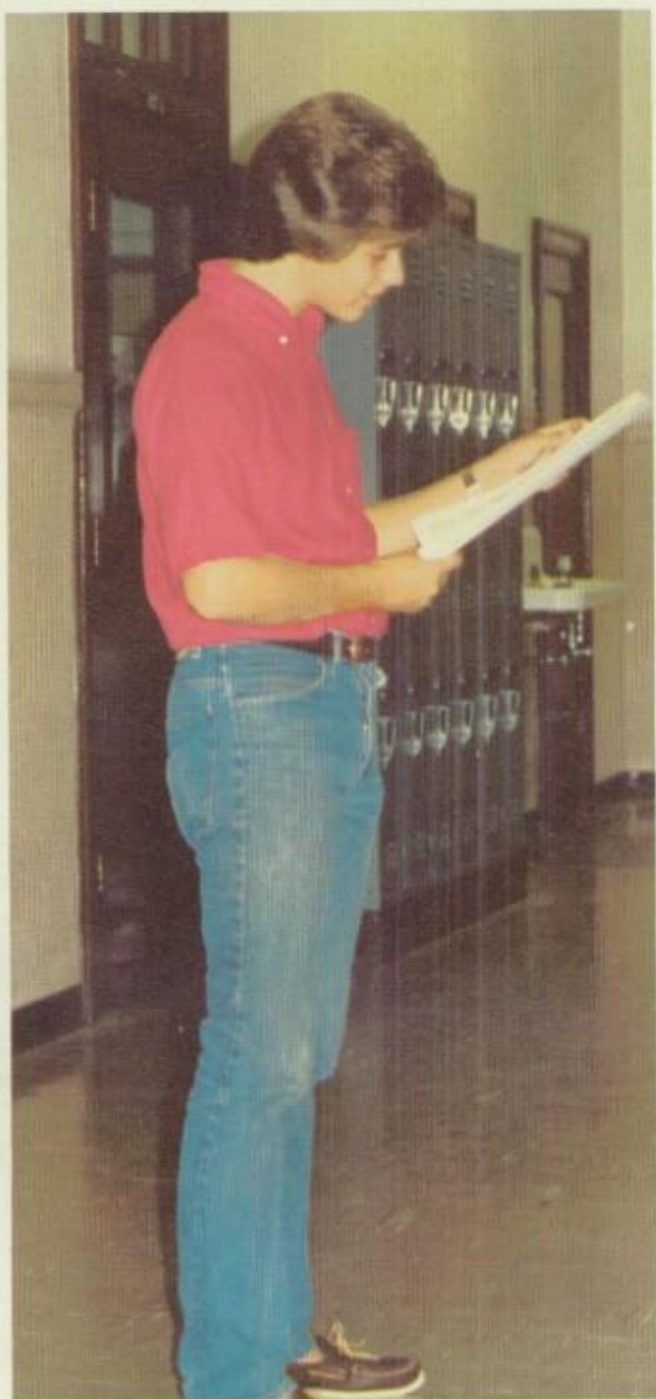

As the bird flies,
So do we now.
The journey of life
Awaits us.
We will travel separately,
But in time we will unite
Back to the nest that nurtured us.

Top right: Smile, you're on candid camera! Above: Ginger Graham's highlight of the day was Mrs. McClanahan's psychology class. Bottom right: Mrs. Peggy Fulco was always willing to lend a helping hand to her students. Opposite page, top left: Jonathon Henderson studied his list of Student Council duties. Top right: Mr. Wilson smiled a smile of relief. Bottom left: A sunset on a beautiful fall day. Bottom right: Lisa Montano bubbled over with happiness.

Our Achievements

My Friends

Time is on our side;
Or is it?
The year is over,
And now we must part.
Tears will be shed
For friends gone by,
But remember still
Friends will come again
To rekindle the memories
Of days that had no end.

Dear Diary . . .

Our Victories

It's doing your best and giving it your all,
And standing up tall after every fall.
It's being willing to go that extra mile,
But accepting defeat with a cheerful smile.
It's loyalty, honor, respect, and trust,
And playing hard but being just.
It's trudging on when your spirits are low,
And never giving up despite all the blows.
It's happy endings and new beginnings,
Never quitting — it's all about winning.

H O N O R S

Mr. & Miss Gusher

Stacey Lynn Meredith

Every year the GUSHER staff selects one boy and one girl from the senior class who represent ideal citizens of Byrd. The titles awarded are Mr. and Miss GUSHER. It is the highest honor the GUSHER staff can bestow upon their fellow students. The students selected must have attended Byrd for three years, shown spirit, determination, and high character values. The recipients of this award have won the respect and admiration from the students and faculty. With great honor and pleasure, the 1983 GUSHER staff presents Mr. and Miss GUSHER, Christopher Anthony Letendre, Stacey Lynn Meredith.

During this time at Byrd, Chris has proven to be an excellent asset to the sports program. He was a third-year letterman in football and a fourth year letterman in baseball, and he earned all-district honors in baseball. Chris not only showed skill in athletics but in leadership as well. Chris served as sergeant-at-arms for Interact for three years, and he was active in FCA. Chris, thanks for all that you have contributed to Byrd and congratulations.

This year's Miss GUSHER was involved in a number of organizations. Stacey started her high school involvement by joining Drama Club her freshman year; in her sophomore year, Stacey was active in pep squad, Leo and HIGH LIFE. Her senior year became very active, and she divided her time among "Z" Club, Key Club, and FBLA. Stacey, thanks for everything you have contributed, and congratulations.

La. Staters Recognized as Leaders

On an early August morning, six very excited but hesitant girls boarded a bus with many others and headed for Louisiana State University in Baton Rouge for the annual Louisiana Pelican State. The following morning, four eager young men took the same route. There, both groups spent a week with over 1200 others, all of whom had been selectively chosen as ours were. During this week of laughter, tears, singing, chanting, and lack of sleep, the delegates actually became mythical states with their own constitutions and laws. All delegates ran and were elected to offices during their stay: Tingate Jue, House of Representatives; Butch Parker, Deputy Sheriff; Chuck Nance, City Attorney; Eric Miller, Supreme Court Judge; Connie May, House of Representatives; Shawn Dixon, City Attorney; Ashley Duggan, Fire Chief; Karen Cain, Coroner, elected Best Coroner, executive assistant to the Secretary of State; and Amy Winder, Clerk of the House of Representatives, Registrar of Voters, and elected to return as counselor. Pelican State will live long in the hearts and minds of this group.

Top Twenty-five Seniors

The top twenty-five seniors of the 1983 graduating class were Linda Albright (1); Lesley Cook and Colleen Cookson (2); Chuck Nance (4); Leta Eaves (5); Beth Proudfoot (6); Louis Bosley (7)(not pictured); Eric Miller (8); Karen Cain (9); Ashley Duggan (10); Adrienne Schewe (11) (not pictured); Judy Patureau (12); Butch Parker (13); Ginger Graham (14); Tingate Jue (15); Shawn Dixon (16); Amy Winder (17); Barry Cooper (18); Sandra Mercik (19); Jenny Frye (20); Jonathan Henderson (21) (not pictured); Laura Smith (22); Regina Travers (23); Efrain Horta (24) (not pictured); Connie May (25).

Outstanding Seniors

James Daron was selected to be on both the All City and All Area team for his accomplishments on the football field.

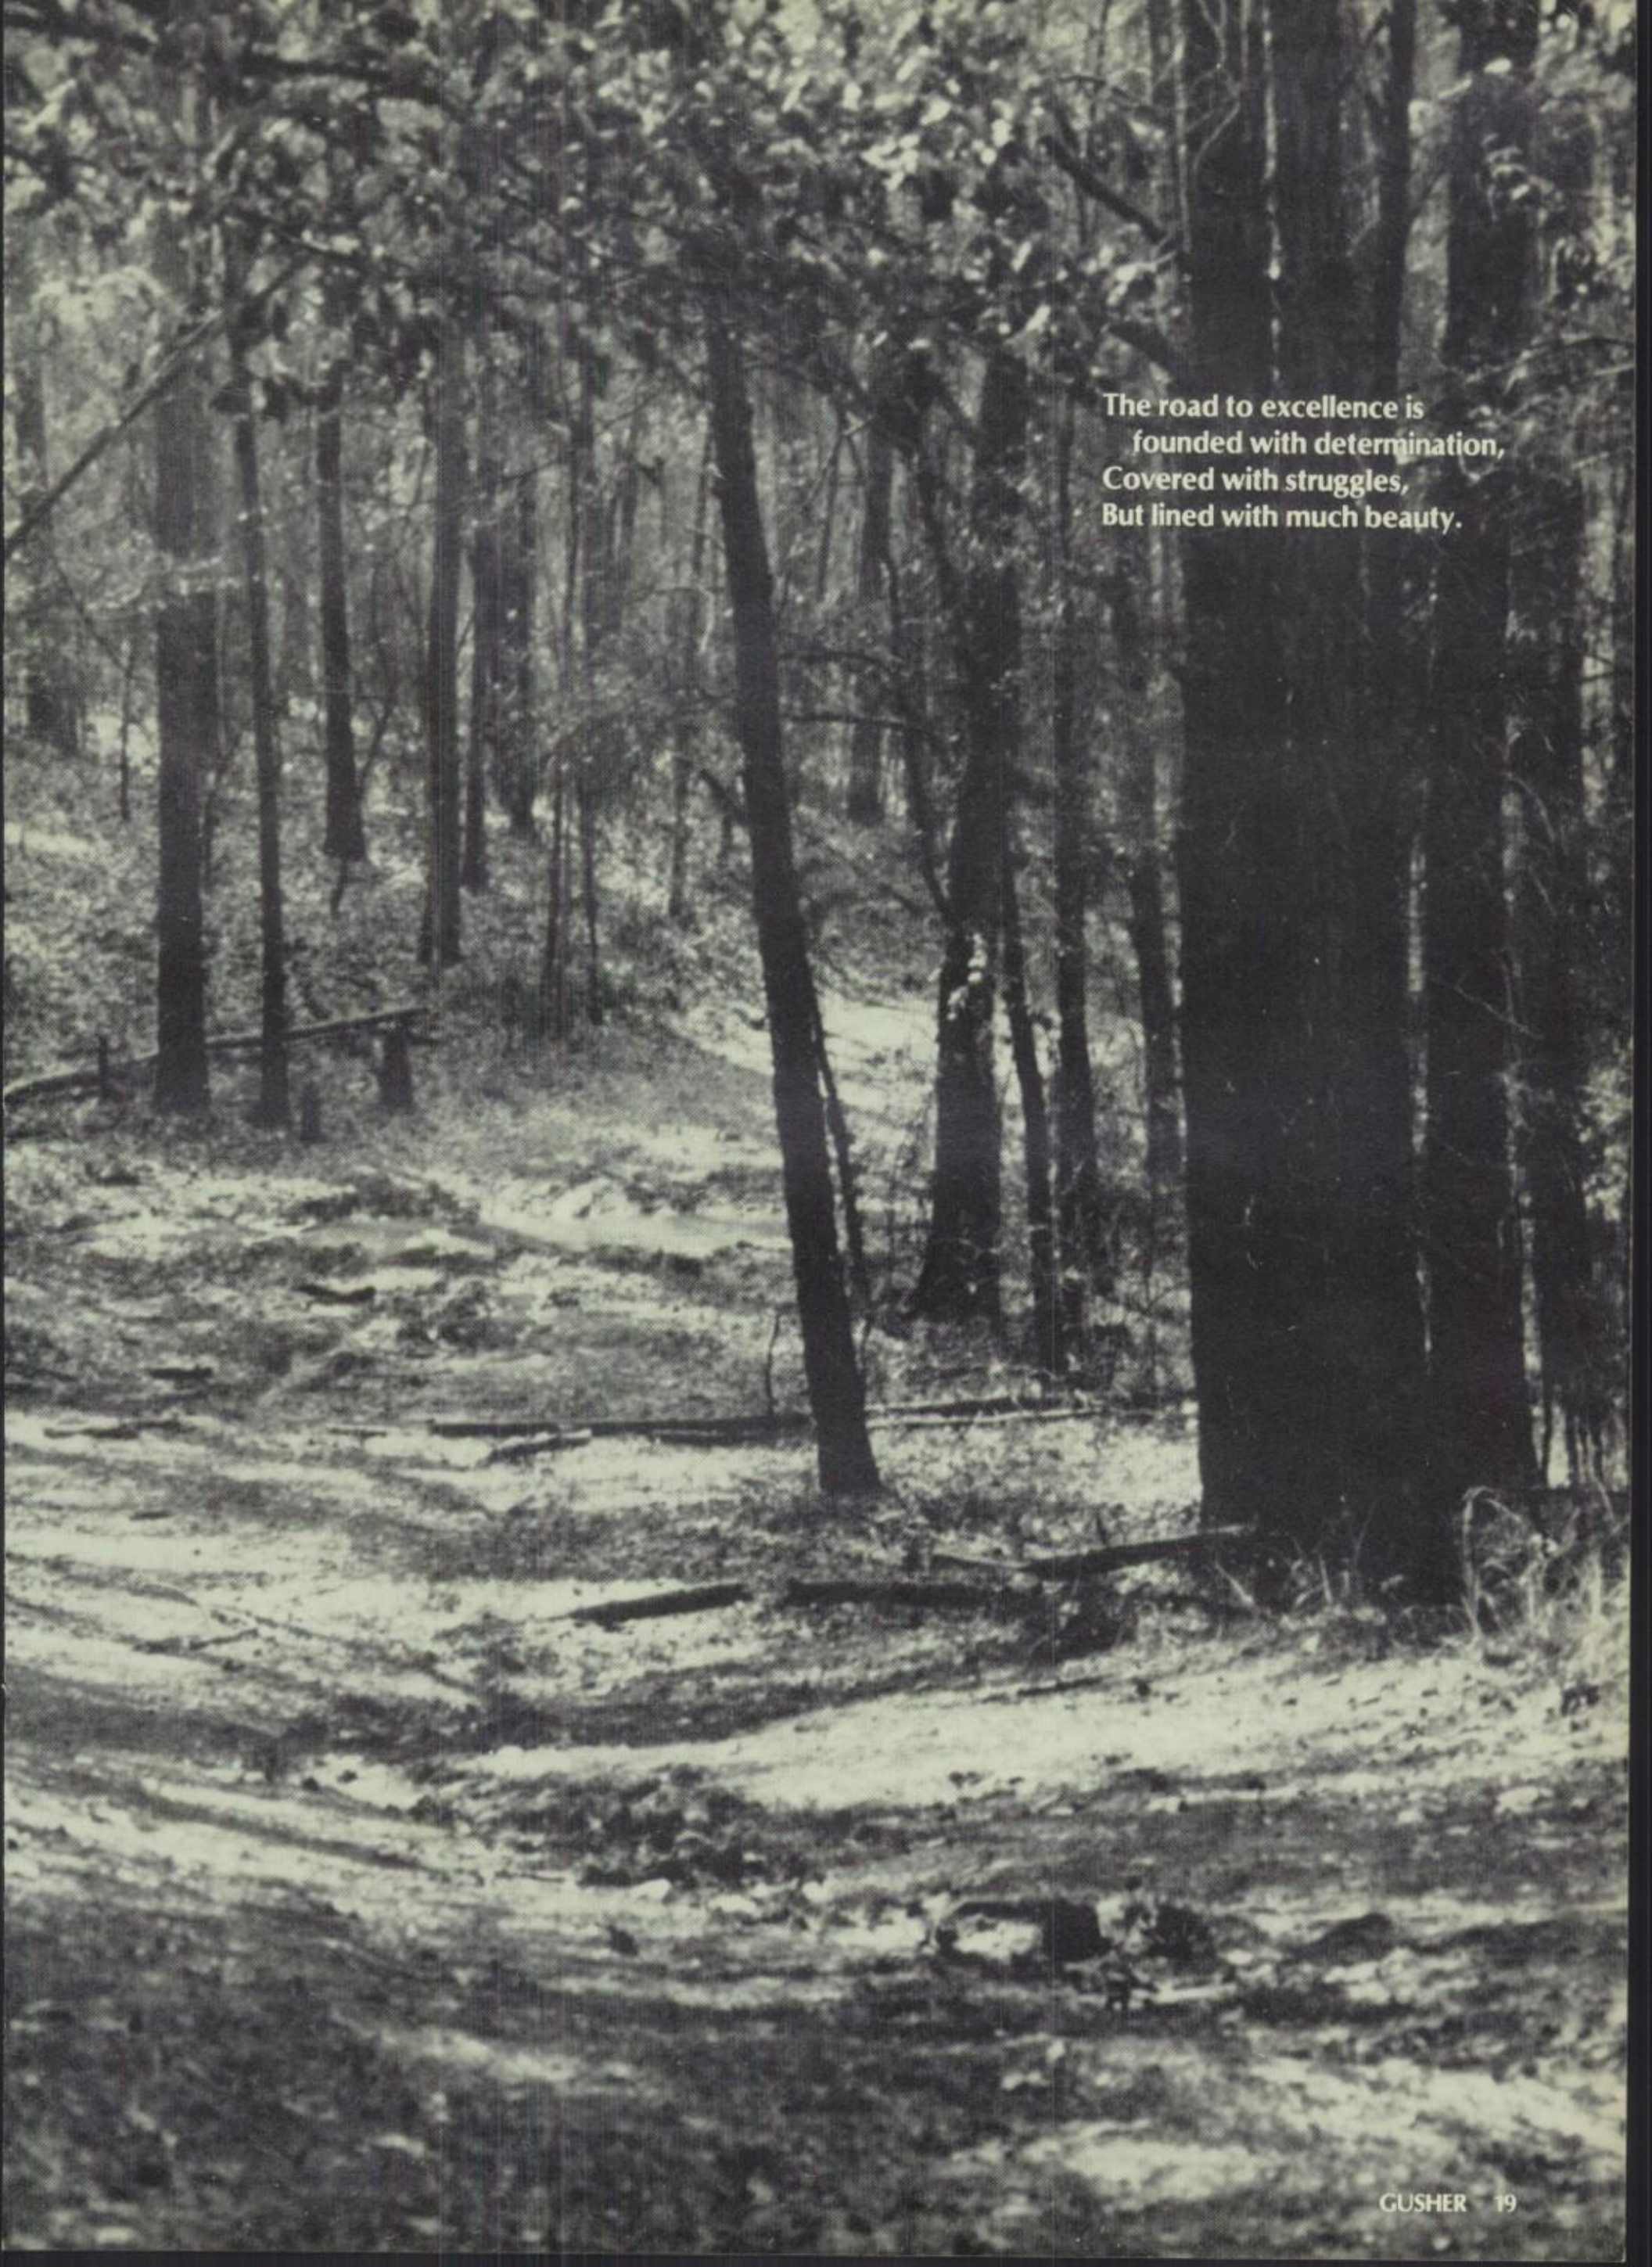

Chuck Nance was a recipient of the Optimist Award during Student Appreciation Week. He also received the science award from Bausche & Lomb.

Eric Miller was awarded the Scholar-Athlete Award given for outstanding athletes who were academic and school leaders. This award was given by the National Football Foundation. Eric also was a two-year winner of the Scholastic Award for having the highest GPA on the team.

Linda Albright, who was given the Citizenship Award by the Daughters of the American Revolution, was also a recipient of the Optimist Award. Linda placed first in the Century III Leaders Scholarship Award.

The ground is uneven and covered with leaves and twigs. The lighting is soft, creating a serene atmosphere.

The road to excellence is founded with determination,
Covered with struggles,
But lined with much beauty.

NCO Learned Military Leadership

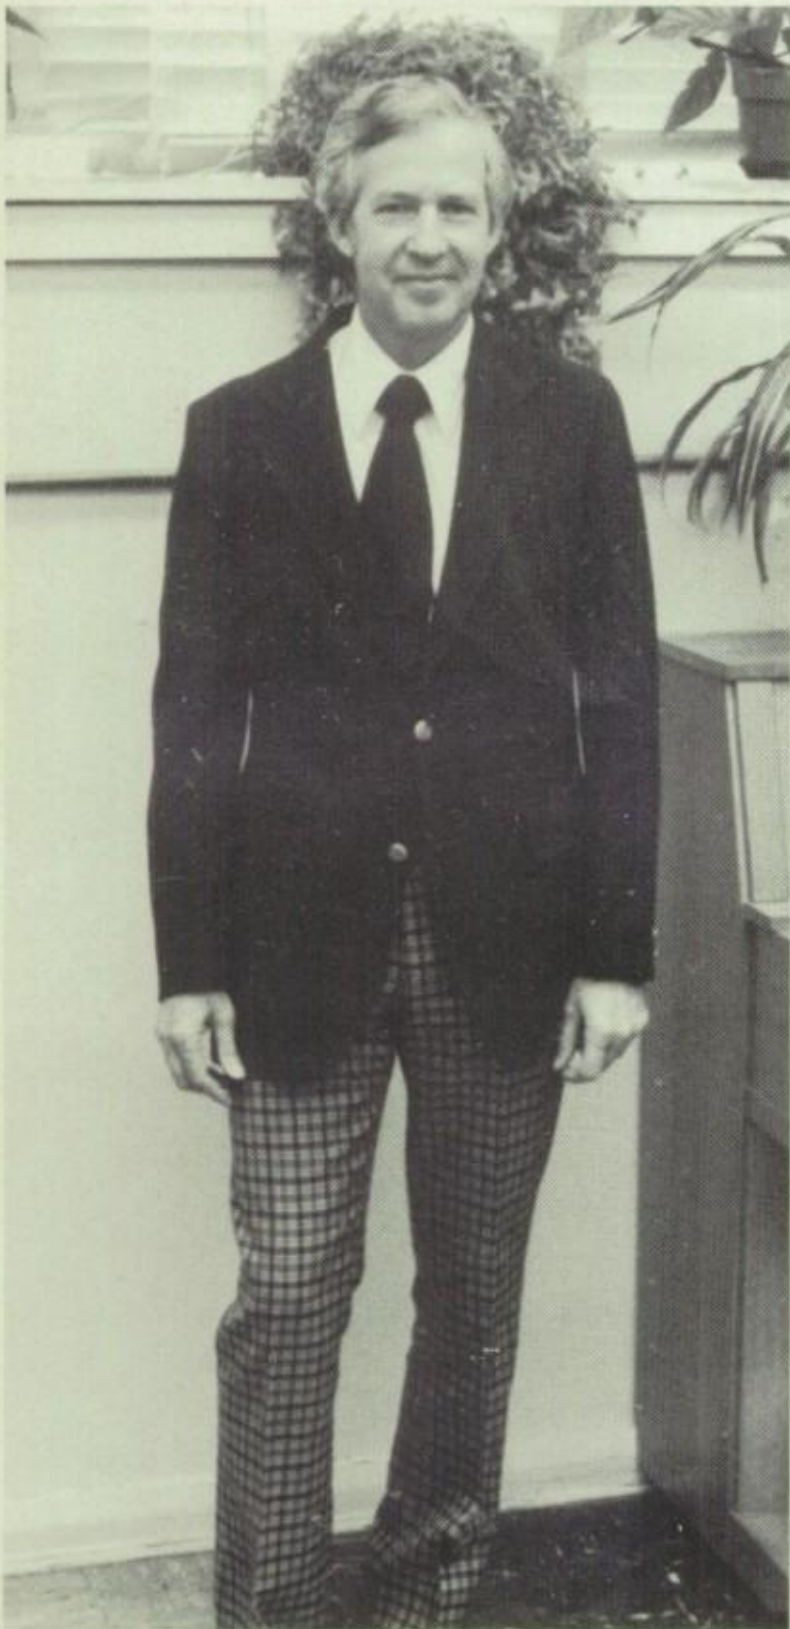

The NCO Club is an organization for the non-commissioned officers or corporals and higher ranks of the ROTC. Their daily activities included classes in map reading, first aid, and military history. They also practiced marching. The NCO marched in the Veteran's Day Parade on November 11th downtown. They planned a military ball for 1983.

Outstanding Students Were

Every year, outstanding students have been recognized at C. E. Byrd for their high achievements. For the 1982-83 school year, thirteen young men and women were elected members of the Grover C. Koffman Chapter of the National Honor Society of Secondary Schools, membership in which is based on Scholarship, Leadership, Service, and Character. Mr. James Sullivan served as sponsor for these students this year.

Quill and Scroll Honored Journalists

Deadlines, ad quotas, and layouts are common words to Quill and Scroll members. Quill and Scroll is a national literary honor society. The members are selected by the GUSHER and HIGH LIFE sponsors. The juniors must maintain a 3.0 grade average, and the seniors must maintain a 2.5 grade average. Although the work is hard and time-consuming, the reward is very self-satisfying.

Mu Alpha Theta Shared Math Skills

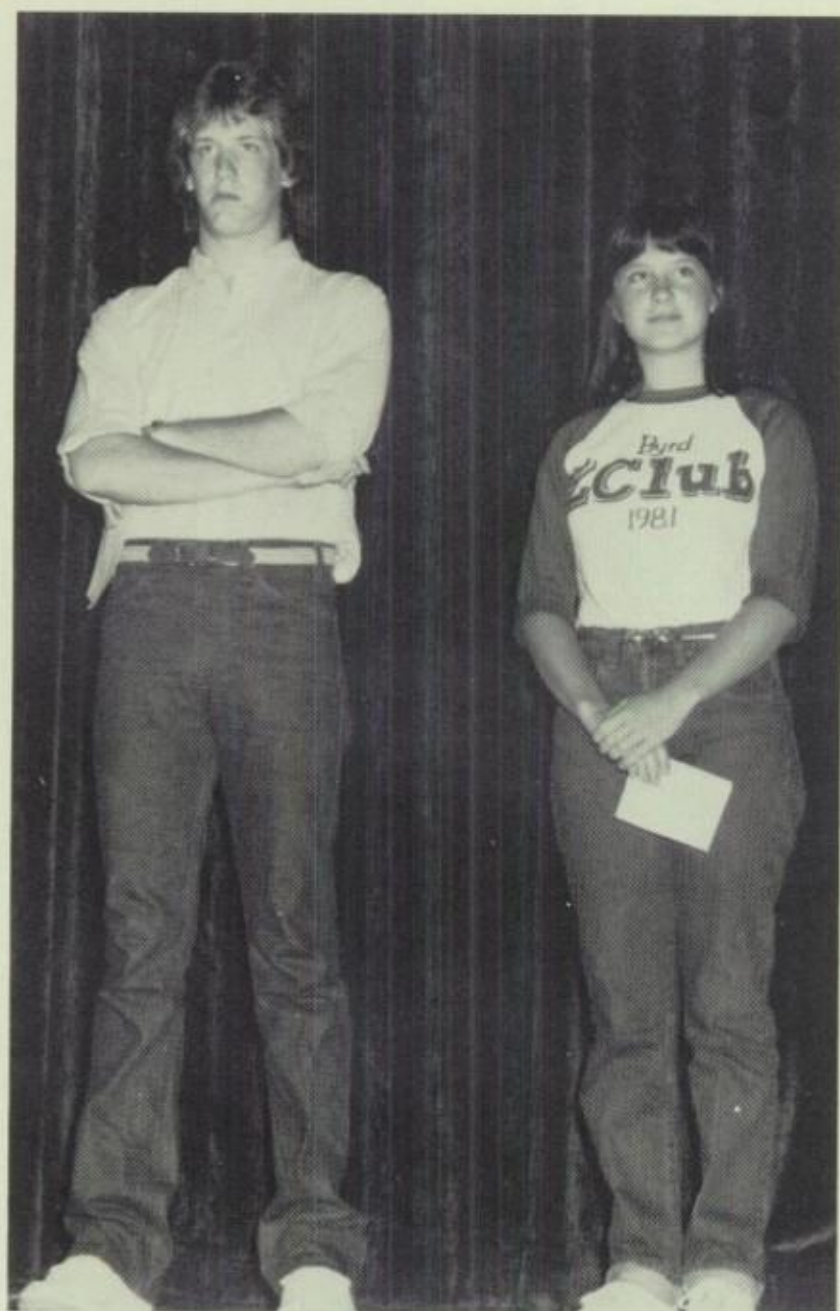

Endless formulas and problems are typical things Mu Alpha Theta members face every day. Mu Alpha Theta is an honorary math society. With Mr. Harkness as the sponsor, they planned their annual math tournament. It is easy to say that Mu Alpha Theta works hard all year long.

ORGANIZATIONS

Pep Squad Had the Fever

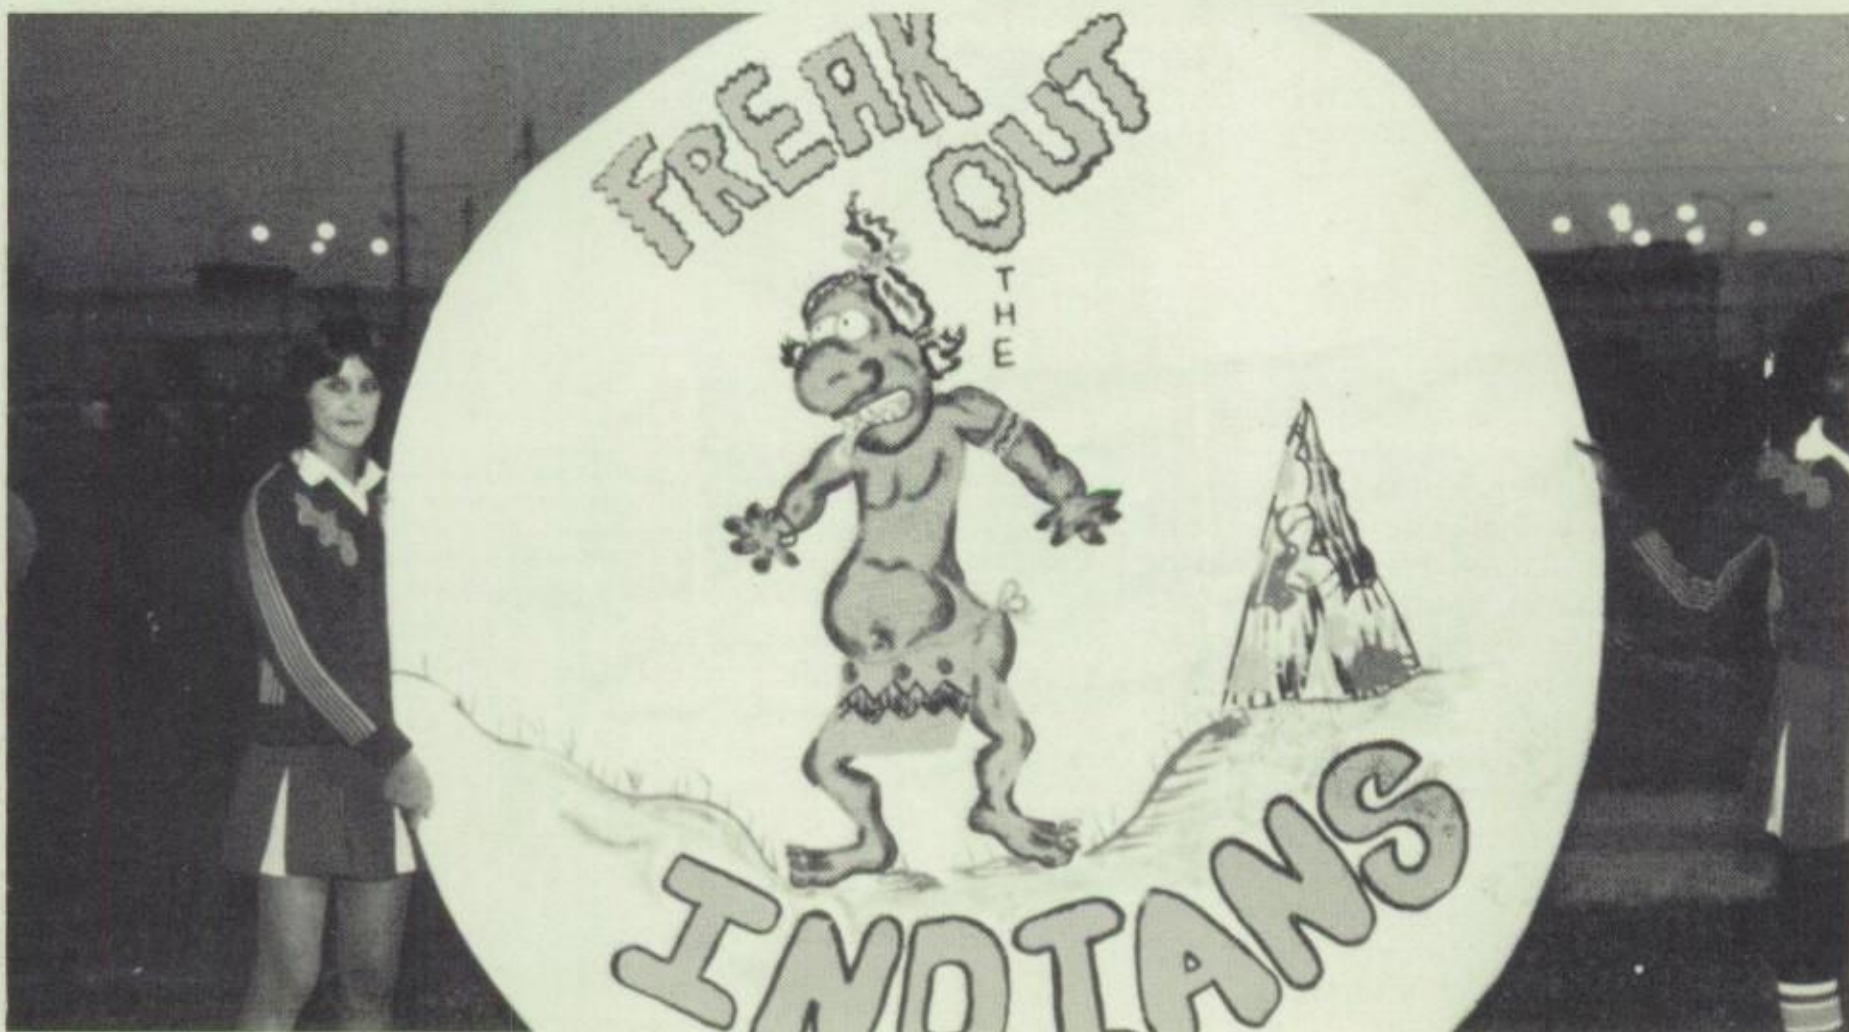

The 1982-83 Pep Squad supported football and basketball games throughout this school year. Under the leadership of Mrs. Carrie G. Belle, sponsor, and LaSandra Shepherd, president, the Pep Squad showed the true Jacket spirit by attending every football and basketball game. During the month of August, the Stingerettes practiced twice a day to learn new cheers and pompom routines. They also sold suckers to help pay for trips made to and from games. Drum Corps learned a total of eight cadences for Go West Day. The Stingerettes proved that the Jacket spirit will live on forever.

Highsteppers Danced

What's dressed in a glittering gold uniform, a bright white hat, and has a dazzling smile? You guessed it. It's a member of the 1982-83 Highsteppers. Selected at the end of the 1982 school year, all seven girls practiced every day of the summer and attended the Superstar Drill Team Camp where they received a Sweepstakes Trophy. If you have ever been around Byrd after school, you probably have seen the danceline preparing for their performances at football games and pep rallies. The Highsteppers were asked to perform at the Red River Revel and at the Super Dome in New Orleans. Miss Lynda Rowland was sponsor.

Spirit! Drive! Ability!

"Spirit! Drive! Ability!" What do you think of when you hear these words? If you answer "cheerleading," then you are right. These words show exactly what it takes to be a cheerleader. The cheerleaders were the initiators of spirit during pep rallies, games, and all other school activities. The drive of the cheerleaders is shown by the tedious tasks required of them such as these: practicing twice daily during the summer; painting banners; selling bumper stickers; and, worst of all, attending NCA camp. All these factors combined to develop the ability of the cheerleaders. This truly was the year of the Jackets!

Football Ad Staff Was

Seven pretty faces smiling up at you is what you see when you open a copy of the 1982 Football Program. No, they are not decoration. They are the Football Ad Staff, and they worked diligently this summer, selling ads, taking pictures, and organizing in order to offer the fans a fantastic football program. To become a member of the Football Ad Staff, you are required to sell $150 worth of ads; and to become an ad manager, you must sell $300 worth. Ms. Williams was the sponsor of this hard-working group of girls.

Elected District President

For the past year, Student Council has been a very active group at the City of Byrd. The Student Council sponsored the Canned Goods Drive, Toys for Tots, and the Blood Drive. Each month during activity period the members met with homeroom representatives and alternates to discuss upcoming events at the school. With the help of Mrs. Glenda Harkness, sponsor, the Student Council was very successful in the distribution of lockers and parking stickers. During second period each day, members prepared for the various assemblies, voter registration, and activity periods. In addition, the Student Council was elected district President of Student Councils and attended the L.A.S.C. workshop in Bossier. 1983 was definitely the year for Student Council!

the Community

"Z" Club, a service organization for girls, was sponsored this year by Mrs. Fish. After the traditional candlelight induction ceremony, the members worked together on many projects to serve their school and the community. They held their annual Sadie Hawkins dance, worked at the Red River Revel, and planned several fund-raising projects. For the 1982-83 school year, Ashley Duggan served as president, and Kate Farmer served as vice-president.

Sponsors the Ones Who

Have you ever thought about what a club or organization would be like without a sponsor? Chaos! Sponsors kept the members in line, dedicated their spare time to the clubs, and best of all, thought up new ways to make money! Without sponsors organizations would have fallen apart and then where would we be? These pages are a small token of our appreciation, and although every sponsor is not pictured, our gratitude includes them all.

Made Things Happen

Key Club Unlocked

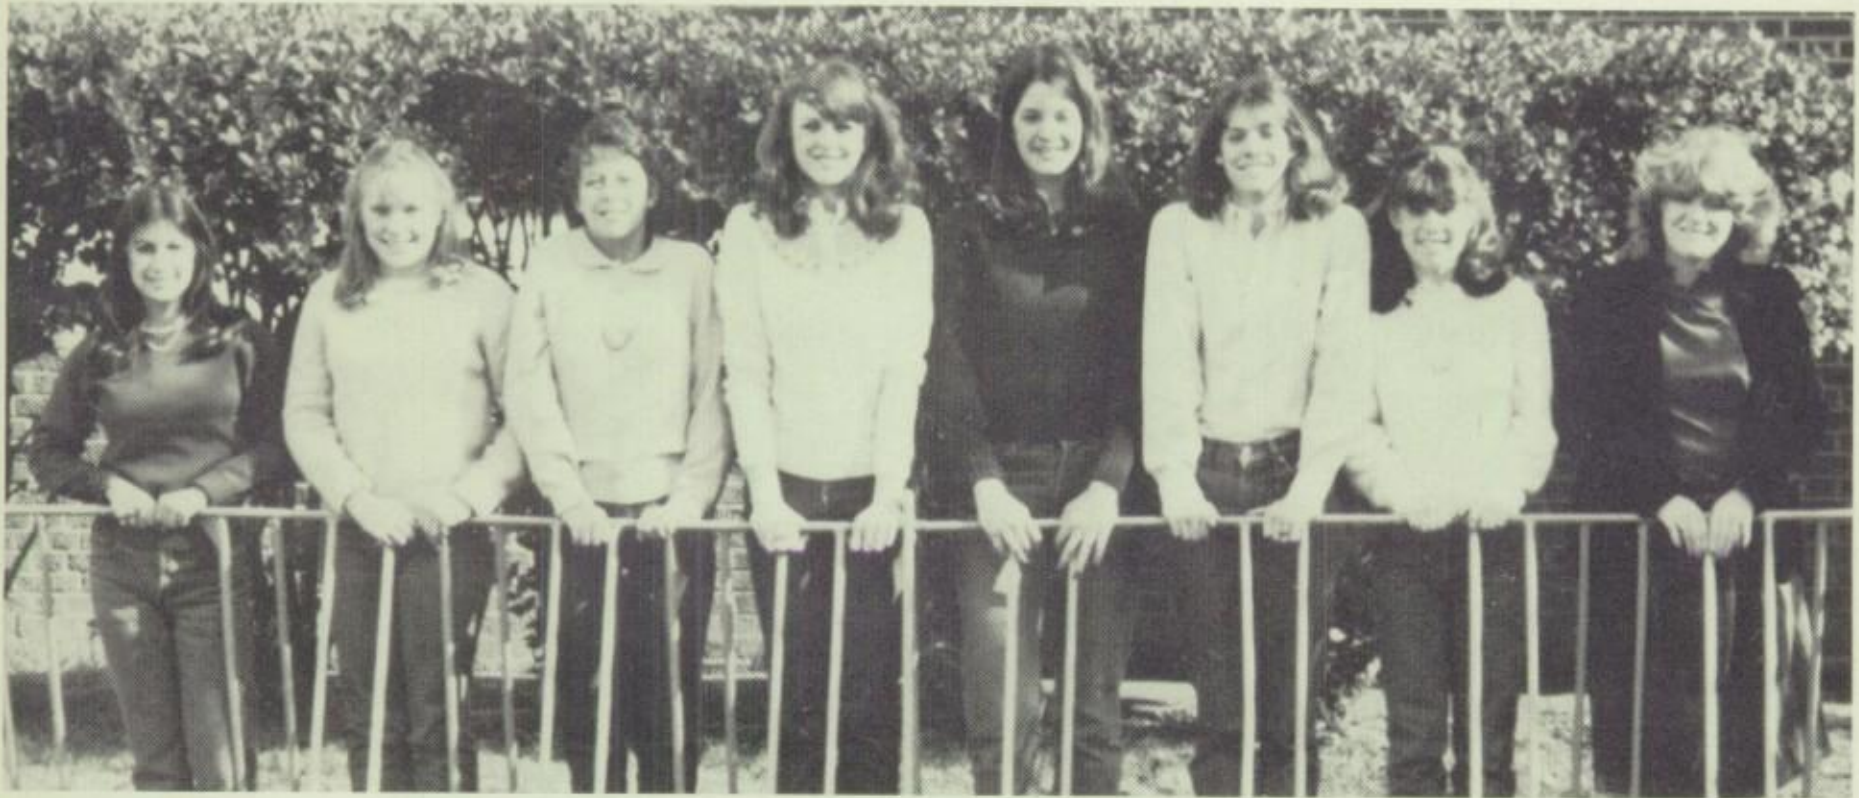

What's the answer to a happy high school life? Ask one student, and he'll probably say, "Get involved." And what better way to participate than to join a school organization such as Key Club. Byrd's Key Club members showed enthusiasm throughout the year and promoted Byrd's spirit. Many hours were spent painting and hanging banners the night before football games and delivering pamphlets as a service of Byrd for the Highland Restoration Project. It was a successful year for this "key" organization at Byrd, and its contributions to the student body were spirit boosting. Mr. Roy Thomas was sponsor.

The 1982-1983 Interact Club is an elite service organization at C. E. Byrd that has helped in many community projects. The club helped in the Red River Revel festivities by preparing and guiding the hot air balloons for the race. Interact also judged the sheet banner contest on "Go West Day," coordinated the 1982 Homecoming Dance, and collected for the Heart Fund. Eric Miller led the club, while being advised by Interact's sponsor, Mr. R. Twyman.

Leo Club Roared

One of the few, the proud, the co-ed clubs! Yes, we're talking about Leo Club, that fine organization at Byrd. This year, Leo Club collected cans, assisted in pep rallies, and did much more. They were leaders in spirit, in knowledge, and were a great asset to Byrd and its future!

Library Workers Assisted Students

Under the supervision of Miss Persley, the Byrd library workers provided a service for the entire school. The library workers shelved books, helped at the circulation desk, assisted students with research material and much more. They were the support personnel that kept the library functioning smoothly. These students performed all the duties necessary for maintaining an effective library operation.

Advisory Committee

Two members of each class are chosen by Mr. Wilson to participate as members of the Advisory Committee. These students work diligently throughout the year in advising the school authorities on the coordination of existing extracurricular activities and the need for new activities. Also, they supervised elections and publicized the various organizations within the school so that students would know the requirements for being a part of any organization or activity sponsored by the school.

an Excellent Book

The GUSHER staff is faithful, hard working, intelligent, creative, and responsible. (I wonder who wrote this?) Throughout the year the GUSHER staff worked hard to get the five-hundred dollar ad quota, draw quad-paks, and meet all deadlines so that the C. E. Byrd spirit could be captured, for maybe one brief moment, and given to you, for the memories. To achieve this high goal, the GUSHER staff worked diligently through the week and on weekends, and some attended year-book camp, winning high honors. To assist the GUSHER staff in this ever-persistent struggle was their fearless leader and sponsor, Miss Barbara Whitehead. Her motto: Life, liberty, and the pursuit of a better yearbook. Is that clear?

for You

High Life Issued a

January, February, March . . . What do the months of the year have in common? Why, the distribution of the Byrd HIGH LIFE, of course. Exciting, entertaining, and exceptional, the HIGH LIFE was produced monthly all throughout the past year and informed students of the current activities that were happening at Byrd as well as in the community. The 25¢ copies captured the attention of many students and faculty with their alluring articles and eye-catching pictures. It is a beloved tradition at Byrd and thoroughly enjoyed by everyone. Mrs. Bowdon was the sponsor.

Mr. and Miss Mistletoe

Elizabeth Ashley Duggan

Mr. and Miss Mistletoe are prestigious titles given to a senior girl and boy each year by the HIGH LIFE staff. Selected for the Christmas issue of the HIGH LIFE, these seniors must have attended Byrd for at least three years, maintained high character values, have been involved in school organizations, and could not be members of the HIGH LIFE staff. It is an honor that should be cherished and remembered by those who hold the title. This year's Mr. and Miss Mistletoe were Elizabeth Ashley Duggan and Richard Carleton Eglin. Congratulations, Ashley and Richard!

Elizabeth Ashley Duggan has attended Byrd since her freshman year and has been actively involved in NHS, Quill and Scroll, and Latin Club during that time.

Richard Carleton Eglin

She's been in "Z" Club and on the GUSHER staff since her sophomore year and served as GUSHER ad manager and "Z" Club president this year. Ashley was also an Interact sponsor.

Richard Carleton Eglin has also attended Byrd since his freshman year and has spent most of his time as the GUSHER photographer. He was a member of the GUSHER staff his sophomore and junior years but served only as photographer this past year. Richard was a member of the football team his freshman year, a member of Quill and Scroll and a member of Key Club for four years. This year he served as Key Club president.

Art Club Created and Decorated

Will you be the next Leonardo Da Vinci? You'll never know until you try. And how do you try? By getting involved! And that's exactly what these talented young students did. The Byrd Art Club, led by Mr. Ronald King, painted banners, decorated the friendly neighborhood McDonalds, created and decorated for Homecoming and Go West Day, and much, much more! So, watch out Picasso, Rembrandt, and Da Vinci . . . the Byrd Art Club students are on their way!

Debate Had a Challenging Year

The National Forensic League continued its tradition of excellence. With Ms. Pam Peak as their sponsor, the six-member team participated in many challenging tournaments. The novice team included Harvey Giblin and Daryl Schonfarber. They excelled in the Caddo Magnet tournament all the way to the quarter-finals this past October. While Larry Nickles and Kay Williamson (the duet-acting team) placed a second and a third.

Byrd was represented in poetry interpretation and broadcasting by Yolanda Moore at the Loyola Preparatory tournament. Harvey Giblin and Daryl Schonfarber left Loyola smiling with half of their rounds won. The debate year isn't over yet, but already debate has "beaten their rivals' desires."

Latin Club Had an Exciting Year

Have you ever wondered what those funny looking quotations on the back of coins, on famous paintings, and in many books mean? Just ask any member of the Junior Classical League. Under the direction of Dr. Songy, the Junior Classical League planned fund-raising projects for the club's convention in March in Baton Rouge. There they are surely destined for excellent ratings and superior works. It would be correct to say that Byrd's Junior Classical League is excelinticimum!

Parlez Vous Francais?

Glorious France! It's what every girl and boy dreams about. The romance, excitement, and wonder of Paris. How can you get it without buying those expensive plane tickets? Join the French Club! The 1982-83 French Club sponsor was Mrs. Patricia Thomas. The French Club participated in the Foreign Language Festival at Louisiana Tech University and received numerous awards and recognition. We're proud of you, French Club.

TALKING HANDS Excelled Greatly

Talking Hands Club this year excelled in the knowledge and use of sign language. The students spent many hours studying and learning under the instruction of six teachers. With only fifteen hearing impaired students this year, each one received a lot of individual attention and assistance. For the 1982-83 school year, the instructors of the hearing impaired were Miss Gina Long, Mrs. Peggy Fulco, Miss Judy Spencer, Mrs. Rhoda Bigner, Miss Natalie Thomas, and Miss Susan Adams.

Top: Miss Long, Miss Adams, and Mrs. Fulco talked of their students' great progress. Middle: The 1982-83 members. Left: Miss Thomas, Miss Spencer, and Mrs. Bigner discussed upcoming lesson plans.

FCA Promoted Fair Play

This year's Fellowship of Christian Athletes was more involved with spiritual participation than ever. Involvement between player and Christ was encouraged both on and off the field. Meetings were held before each game to place a positive sense of fair play and team cooperation. Charles Thrash usually spoke at each one, attributing to the success of FCA. William Fain was elected as huddle-leader, a position attained by vote. The huddle-leader's function was to arrange and help supervise the meeting's agenda.

D.E.C.A. Was Working Harder Than Ever

D.E.C.A., Distributive Education Clubs of America, was sponsored by Mr. Wade Robinson. This was a club that developed a sense of responsibility by participating in on-the-job training. They attended many conferences throughout the year. Members gained experience which they hoped will get them into the big world.

FHA Readied

The Future Homemakers of America members extend beyond that of homemakers to include the roles of citizen and consumer. To raise funds for the organization this year, the F.H.A. members sold refreshments at all the school functions. In following the usual tradition, they baked a cake for the seniors on "Go West Day." In addition, they sponsored a retirement party for retiring faculty members at the end of the year. With the help of Mrs. Gleason, faculty sponsor, F.H.A. members gained knowledge of the home as well as the community that will benefit them in later life.

4-H Our Future Farmers

The 4-H Club of Byrd High, future farmers of America, sponsored by Miss Persley, increased greatly in the number of members during the past year. The new officers attended a leadership class to acquire information in leading fellow classmen.

The members of the club mature and receive self-confidence from participating in various activities.

PJA Showed They Cared

We love you, P.T.A.! You've supported the Jackets through football, basketball, and baseball season by attending every game. It was you who pushed so hard and so long for renovation, and we finally got it. P.T.A., what would we do without your hard work and dedication that made our students and our school known throughout the parish? We thank you, P.T.A., and we love you!

Drama Club Had the Lines

What would high school be without plays? Who would perform the plays if there was no Drama Club? The Drama Club planned many exciting plays and melodramas for us. Although this involves endless hours of tryouts and rehearsals, to see the smile on people's faces was a great reward.

Thespians Knew Their Drama

Five minutes to curtain, "break a leg," and make-up are the common sounds to the 1982-83 Thespians. The Thespians are veterans of drama that have shown excellence and talent in acting. Practice, remembering lines and cues are all part of what they do. They are those students who participated in two or more major plays and who have earned a qualifying number of points. The sponsor of Thespian Society was Mrs. Pam Peak.

Rifle Team Shot for Perfection

The C.E. Byrd Rifle Team shot its way through the Natchitoches Festival in December. The rifle team also planned to go to a nationwide tournament held at Byrdville in Arlington, Texas.

Robert Rost was this year's Director of Marksmanship.

Alpha Stressed Leadership

Alpha Company was headed by Dewayne Middleton and Barry Cooper this past year. All the members worked hard to strengthen their military as well as their academic skills. Their patience, hard work and cooperation soon paid off.

Top: Sergeant D. Yerton is always on top of things. Above: Members of Alpha Co. were, first row, M. Glenn, J. Bryant, K. Bechham; second row, K. Hunt, D. Musgrove, B. Hatton, J. ACTIVITIES

Homecoming Was a

What a day! The festivities began with a Pep Rally in the morning. During the assembly, the Homecoming cheerleaders led in building the spirit of the students. The Homecoming Court was presented, and the pep rally was a success. The day was not complete, for that night the mighty Jackets played the El Dorado Wildcats, while the cheerleaders led in the spirit building once again. During the half-time, the 1982 Homecoming Court was presented while the Pep Squad, High Steppers, and Band formed the Letters BHS. Tanyau Livingston, elected by the senior class, was crowned queen by Dr. Shaw, and Sharon White, elected by the football team as sweetheart, was presented a ceremonial football. The 1982 Homecoming ended with a bang, for the following night the Homecoming dance was well attended and much enjoyed by all.

Pep Rallies Created

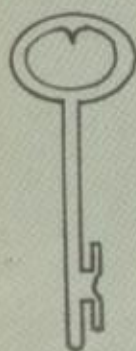

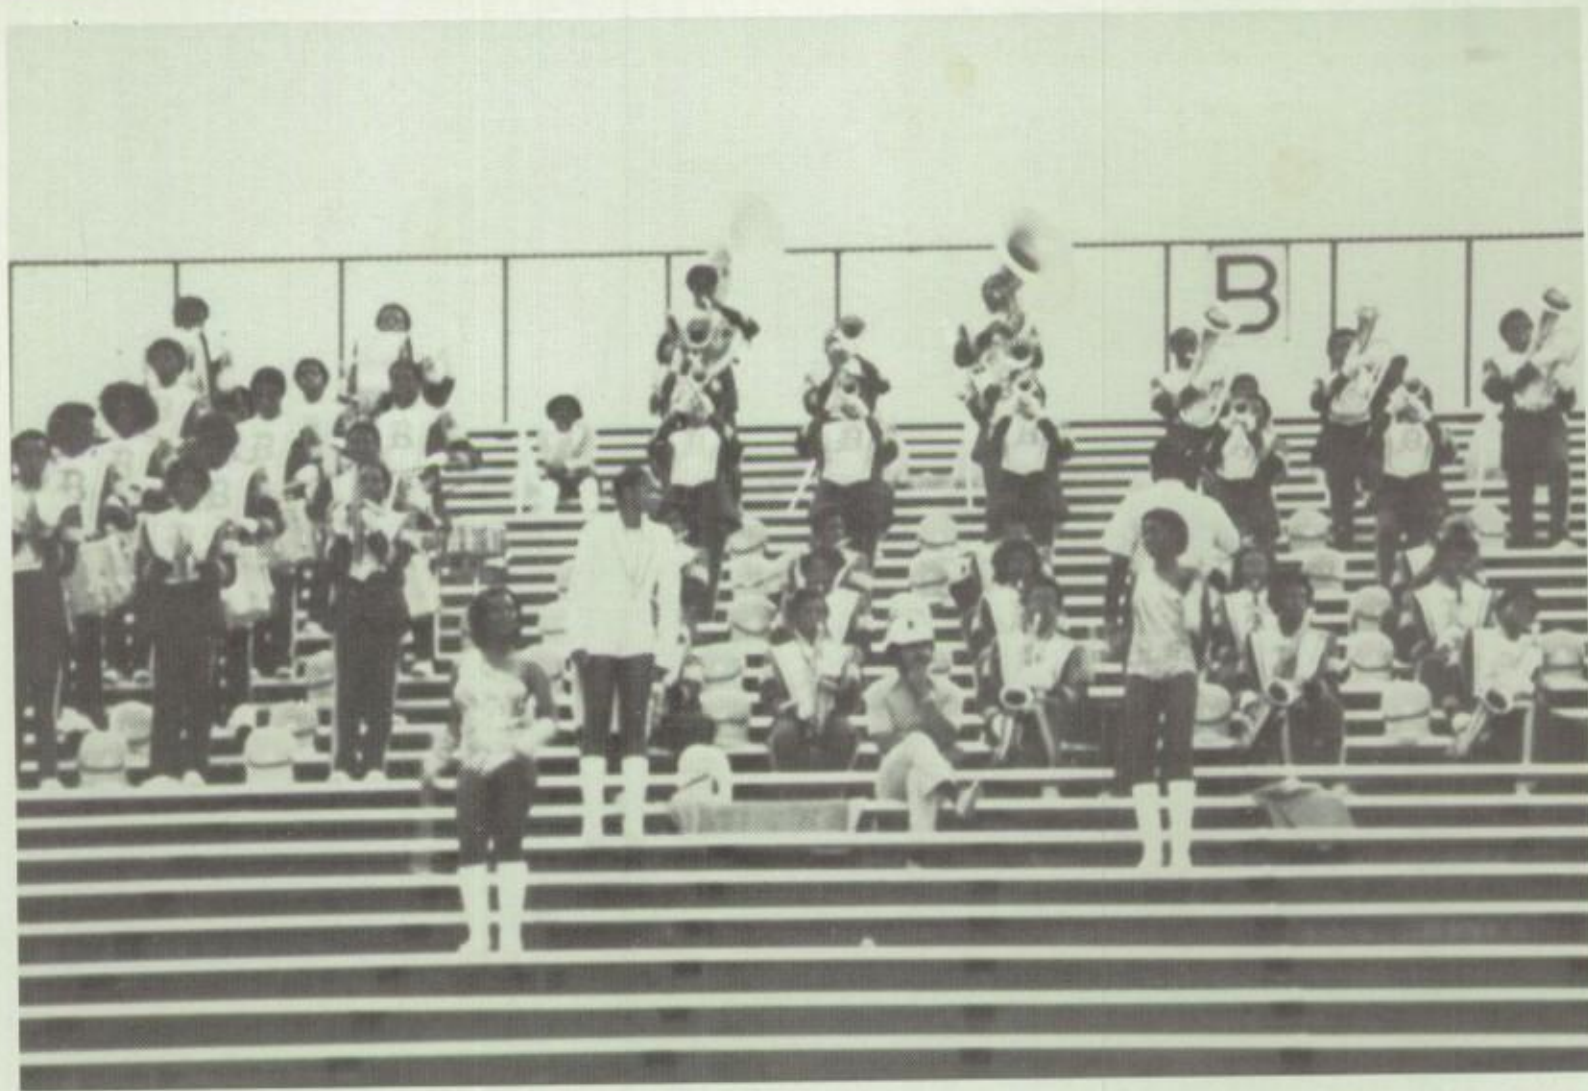

In the halls of the City of Byrd it is not uncommon to hear a passerby say, "It was totally awesome! The band was great, and everyone had a ball." Most people would presume that he was mentioning a dance or party he had been to over the weekend, but we Byrd students know that he was talking about the Jacket pep rallies. Jacket pep rallies have been a long tradition at Byrd and are in every way unique. We mix together the cheerleaders, the football team, pep squad, danceline, the mighty Jacket band, and those great Byrd fans. The results? Spectacular! Exciting! And yes, totally awesome! Come to one, and you will say, "That Jacket spirit will live on forever!" . . . And it will, too!

MUSIC

Choir Sang for Us at Christmas

Long hours of practice, singing a note until your face turns blue, and constant memorizing are just some of the traumas choir members go through. Choir, a long standing organization at Byrd, is composed of dedicated high school students who have excellent singing abilities. They perform for Byrd in many area competitions, and they let us have the pleasure of hearing them in our Christmas assembly. What, do you ask, do they receive for their hard work? Just seeing the smile of other peoples' faces is enough for the C. E. Byrd Choir.

The Elite,

"Band Royalty"

This year's band royalty consisted of ten members, each serving as the elite of Byrd's already superior marching band. These students showed character and leadership that is expected of the role they served. The Band Royalty members were selected by other band members.

Byrd High Marching Band

The C.E. Marching band attended many functions throughout the state. The majorettes attended L.S.U. Band Camp in Baton Rouge and won superior and excellent ratings on their performance. On October 23, 1983, the band went to New Orleans to perform in the pre-game show before the Tulane and Memphis State football game in the Superdome. The band also marched in the Louisiana State Fair and traveled to Monroe to compete in the Battle of the Bands Festival.

Byrd Tennis Team

Game Set and Match

Byrd Aced the Season

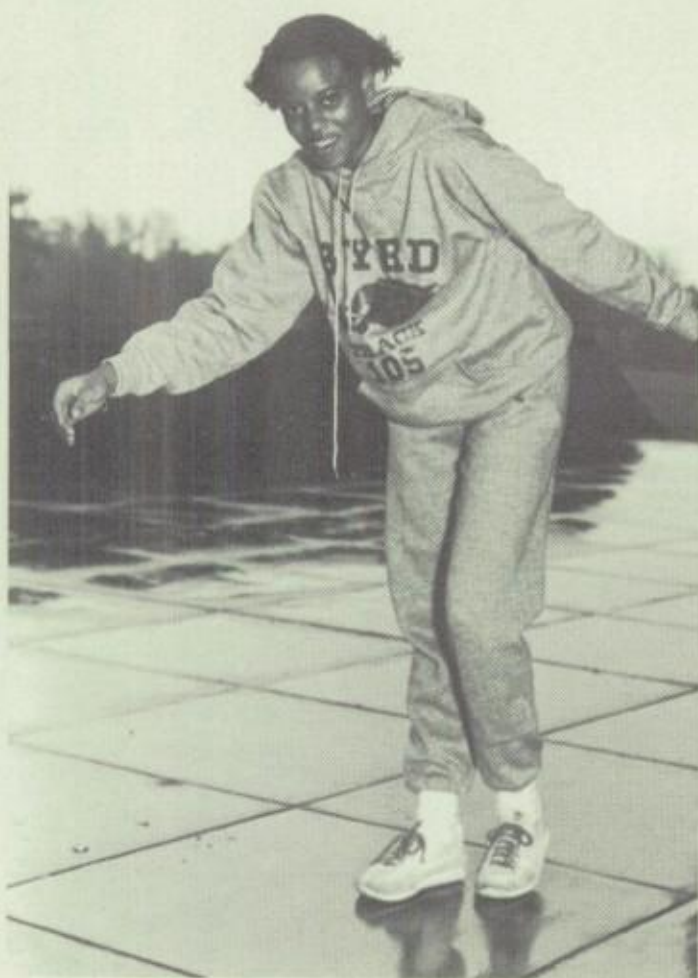

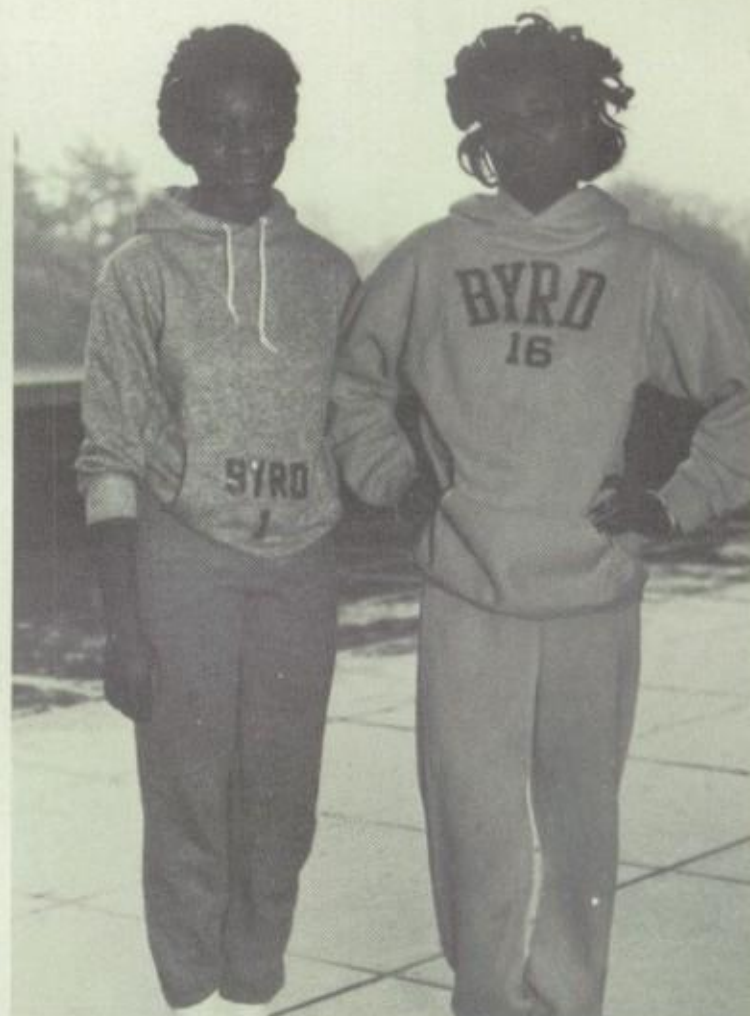

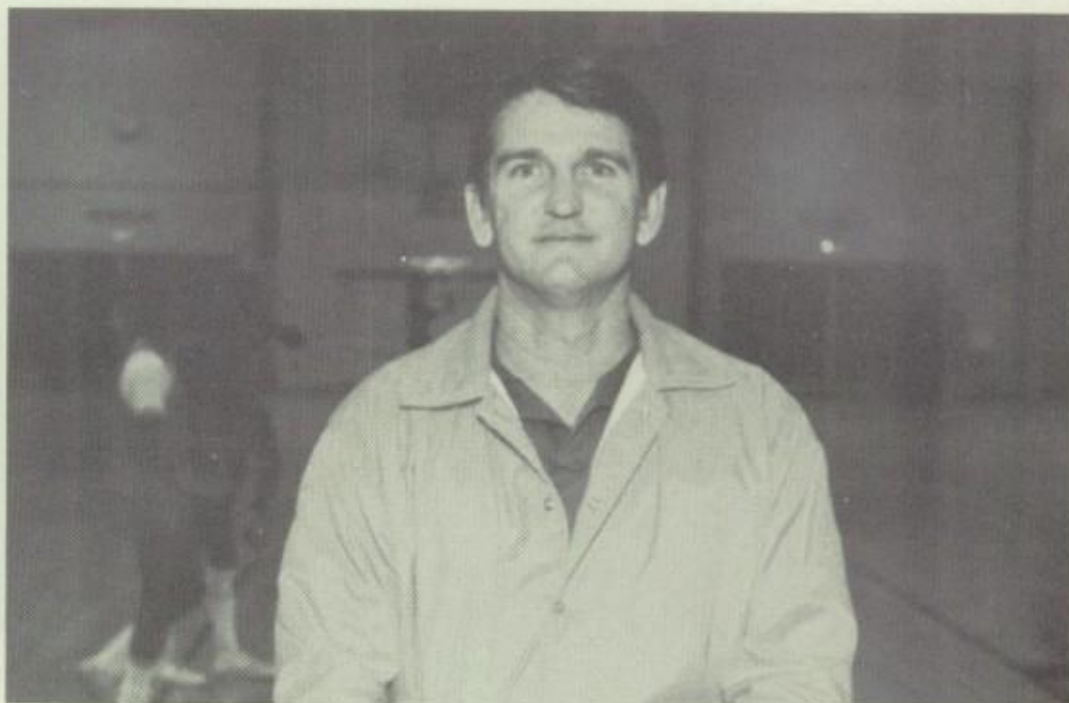

Practice, practice, practice! When the sun shines you will always find the Byrd tennis team practicing. In the heat of the day, every day the team perfected their skills and tested their stamina against one another and their opponents. This diligence and determination shown by these athletes proved to be a successful formula to a fine year in tournament play.

Girls Track

The girl's track team of 1983 consisted of a dedicated group of young ladies. Headed by Coach Burton, the team practiced after school every day, faithfully. They planned track meets at B.T.W., Southwood, Monroe, and their own "Shreveport Relay's." They planned to run their way into the winners' circle.

Track

This year's field and track competitors were the defending district champions. These members proved capable of surpassing their predecessors and established goals with the help of Jerry Burton, the head coach and coordinator. The key to their success was in devotion to practice and a sense of pride in Byrd.

Baseball

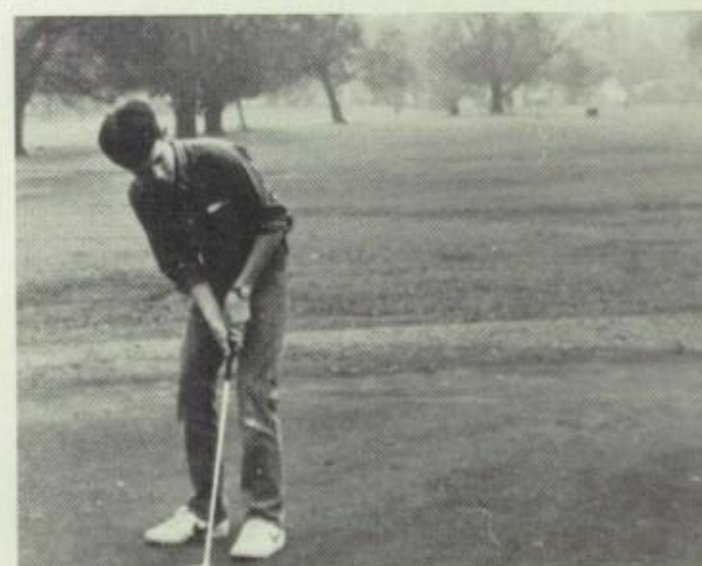

What is baseball? Byrd's definition of baseball is "a combination of sportsmanship, team play, and determination." This definition then lends itself to a synonym — dangerous! Under the direction of Mike Poole, this year's baseball team was certainly dangerous. Each game was played with the same enthusiasm that is always evident at C. E. Byrd.

Golfers Were Up to Par

Golf, a sport that requires extreme concentration and an unusual amount of patience, was this year, as always, a challenge. Coach Johnny Harkness and his small but enthusiastic few provided comparable results to each opponent. Coach Harkness supplied more than adequate supervision to the beginners as well as the accelerated players. Many matches were attended throughout the area against stiff competition, resulting in an overall improvement in golf and mental skills.

Rough, Tough Lady Jackets

Basketball

Coach Charles Thrash once again proved that he and his Jackets could uphold the winning tradition at Byrd. Through dedication and determination, this team, although not the largest physically or numerically, pressed themselves to heights beyond what seemed expected of them.

Football

The Yellow Jacket, a figure of unyielding fierceness, is symbolic of its painful sting and annoying presence. This year's Byrd Jackets had the overwhelming characteristics after which they were named. The record attained by this nest of members failed to show its astounding ability. The season was completed with a 3-7 record. However, every opponent met Byrd with apprehension and uneasiness, knowing the battle would not be short-lived. Jacket poison was injected into the enemy, sending him to his knees. Each team member is a part of Byrd and the heritage it carries.

Mr. Wilson Enforced Discipline

Mr. George Wilson served Byrd High as assistant principal in charge of administration. He supervised the classrooms, building and grounds, cafeteria, social and athletic events. Mr. Wilson stressed discipline with the enforcement of school rules and conferences. Attendance was a major concern as was student services and activities. He assisted new teachers with policies and classroom problems. He kept up with supplies, reports, and supervised janitorial services. Mr. Wilson fulfilled numerous duties throughout the year. Mr. Wilson received his B.S. degree from Grambling University and his M.S. degree from the University of Southern California and Bradley University.

Dr. Shaw — on the Road Again

This summer our principal did something that most people wouldn't attempt to do. He rode his Honda Gold Wing 1000 9,500 miles to Alaska in 30 days. Averaging over 330 miles a day, Dr. Shaw experienced challenges and sights that most of us in our lifetime will never have the pleasure of seeing. He passed Mount McKinley, the great Alaska Pipeline, bears, moose, and bald eagles. During the trip he lived in the wilderness, sleeping and eating outside. When asked what his favorite part of the trip was, he said, "Maybe it was the challenge. It's still hard to believe we did it and did it in 30 days."

FACULTY

Role in the City of Byrd

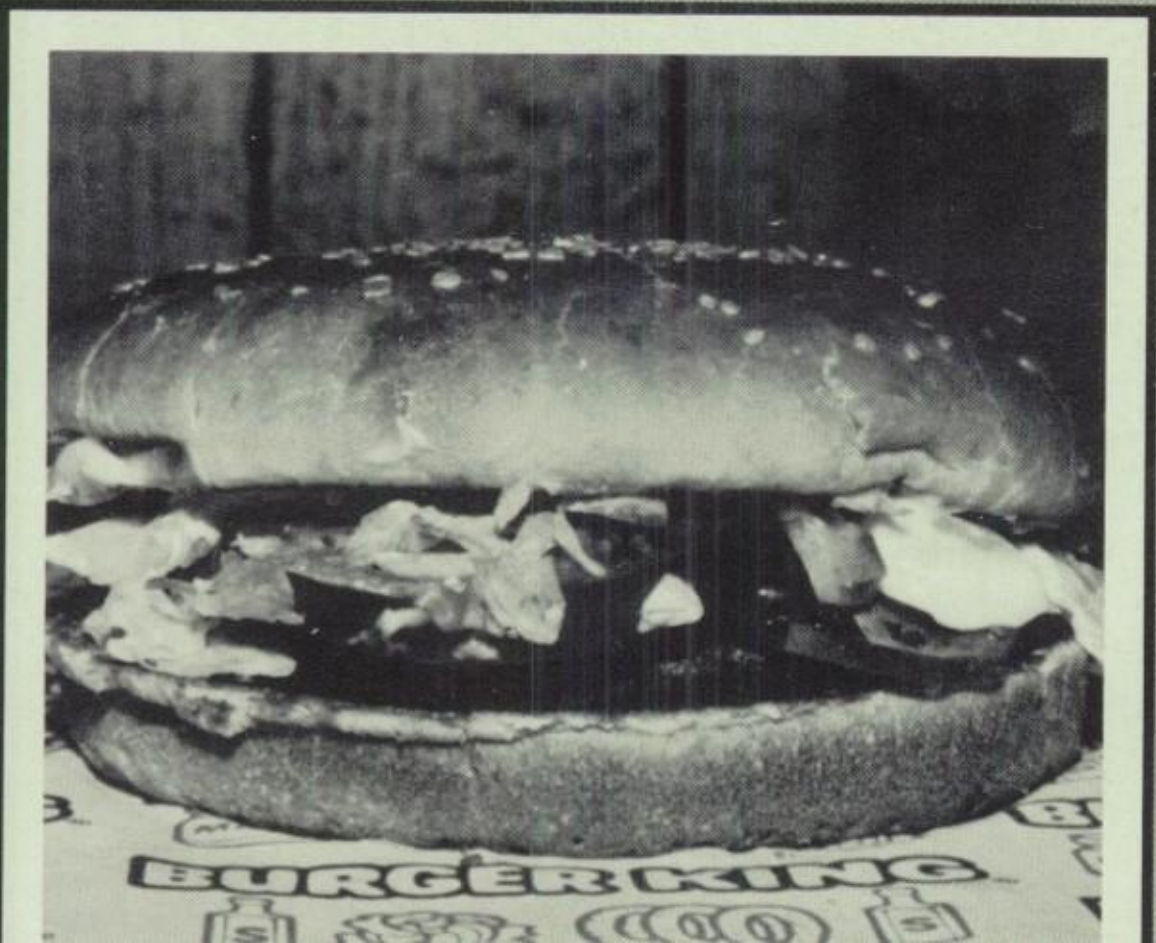

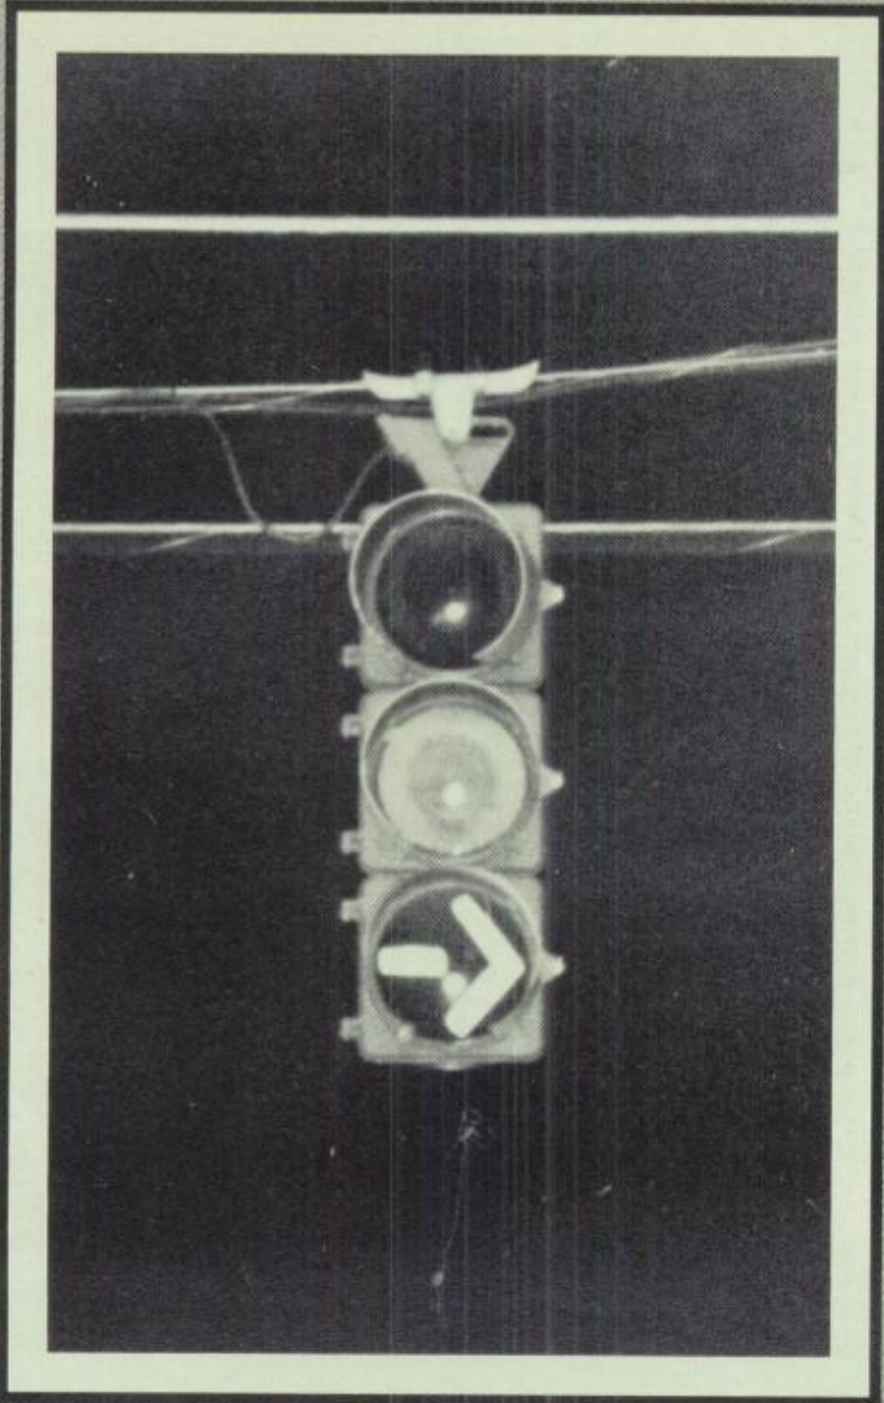

Since the beginning of time, man has often expressed his feelings through his music, rather than his words, because music has long been an integral part of his nature. The music inspired, consoled, excited and cheered its listeners. The C. E. Byrd Marching Band used its music as an outlet for one of the most fulfilling experiences in education, music — and while they taught themselves music, they entertained us fully. The band added immense excitement and spirit to Byrd through members' participation and talents in and out of school.

CONNIE RENEE MAY

THIS IS YOUR LIFE

DO YOU REMEMBER —

When you ran away from home to the neighbor's house? You were 4 then.
When we called you "pig pen" because you stayed so dirty all the time?
When you won the Baby Sister Contest at the age of 5, and then were 1st runner-up in the La Petite Pageant?

When you knocked over the Christmas tree in 1971?

When you kissed the clown and made him smile at the March of Dimes Walkathon? That put you on the front page of the newspaper.

When you were a cheerleader in 5th and 6th grade at A. C. Steere?

When you wore the funny glasses with the big nose in the talent show?

Remember "Sonny and Cher"?

When you were the "littlest witch" in the Wizard of Oz and stole the show? You were 11 then.

When you got cheerleader and class favorite in 7th grade at Broadmoor Jr. High?

When you got head cheerleader in 8th grade?

When you played basketball and showed how well a short person could play?

When we got your hair cut so short, and you locked yourself in the bathroom and cried for hours?

When you had the big birthday slumber party, and your friends kept us up all night and ate your sister's decorated cookies that she was to take to the Girl Scout party?

When you won the camera on KEEL radio?

When you got in Z club and on Gusher staff in the 10th grade?

When you got in Quill and Scroll, Danceline, and a Key Club Sweetheart in 11th grade?

When you were a cheerleader in 12th grade?

REMEMBER — your 1st driving lesson, the ways you had to con your dad out of spending money, the late nights on the cruise in '82, the stunts you pulled at yearbook camp, your voice change after cheerleader camp, all the fun at Girls' State, the Sadie Hawkins disasters, the New Year's Eve sitting on the TV set, the 1:00 A.M. breakfasts, and ALL the chores you did around the house (ha, ha, ha)?

WE WILL NEVER FORGET, AND WE LOVE YOU DEARLY.

3040 Centenary

Jenny Frye daydreamed about that special guy.

YOUR FIRST COMPUTER SHOULD BE SECOND TO NONE.

Commodore believes your first computer should be the best computer you can buy. The reasoning is simple. If you're going to computerize your business, why chance it on a second rate computer? Your opinion you can't buy a better small business computer than the Commodore CBM.

When it comes to features, no other computer in its price range features more. For example, we have one of the largest screens in the industry. And we're practically the only computer with a built-in keyboard. In short, you can't switch from another small business computer to Commodore without losing out.

The CBM is also easy to operate. If you can type, you can use our computer. And unlike some computers, the CBM is available with a variety of software to solve your business needs.

Now if you're beginning to think that a computer like this must cost a fortune, think again. The CBM is one of the most practical business computers you can buy.

The Commodore CBM. After all, your first computer should also be good enough to be your last computer. Commodore

WESTERN ELECTRIC

Western Electric's Shreveport Works plays a major role in helping keep people in touch nationwide. It annually produces over half of the new telephones used in the Bell System. Established in 1965 in Southwest Shreveport, Western Electric has experienced impressive growth, being, for the past ten years, Louisiana's second largest manufacturing facility. Over 6,700 employees work daily to provide high quality telephone sets and related equipment for use in the world's finest telecommunications network.

Dearest Friends,

Well, turn out the lights, the party's over. Or is it? I would like to reflect a little about the good times . . .

Remember the football games, workshops in Monroe, homework with ice chests, those long lunches, those long mornings, Knights in White Satin, invasion of the Falklands, the Mac, the Bell, the Boat, Mead Halls, and all the people and friends. It may seem that we have lost these, but we haven't — we have golden memories to cherish and also a lifetime to relive them. Thank you for the memories, the friendship, the laughs, the tears, and most of all being a part of my life.

ARNOLD PIPE: Inventory, Capability and Response in a Central Location

Arnold Pipe is a no-middleman operation built around the concept of area capability. In our central yard, located in Shreveport, we have almost $4 million in inventory—including the largest API coupling stock in the area.

This central location, combined with an extensive inventory, puts us miles and hours closer to your job site. All it takes to get your order rolling is a single phone call.

Almost before the receiver is down, your order is on its way to being loaded by Arnold hands, on Arnold trucks, driven by Arnold drivers. There is no room for middlemen or buck-passing.

This is why loading can begin within an hour on most orders.

The next time you need downhole casing, line pipe, tubing or couplings call Arnold Pipe and see what a difference our Personal Attention—Personal Responsibility style of operations can make.

Do you need a reason to join the Louisiana National Guard?

Well, here are some very good incentives —
FREE COLLEGE TUITION:

State law provides exemption from tuition payments in all state supported Colleges in Louisiana for all active members of the Louisiana National Guard. This exemption may be claimed for five (5) separate years or until receipt of a bachelor's degree, whichever occurs first.

$1500 ENLISTMENT BONUS or $4000 IN EDUCATIONAL ASSISTANCE

High school seniors and graduates who enlist in certain National Guard units may receive a $1500 enlistment bonus, or $4000 in educational assistance.

SPLIT TRAINING PROGRAM

Split training means that your Basic Training and Advanced Individual Training in the National Guard (which must be completed within a twelve (12) month time frame) can be staggered to fit your personal schedule.

For example, you can take Basic Training the summer of your junior year. Consider it a paid full-time summer job. During your senior year of high school, you will go to the monthly National Guard meetings. Consider it a paid part-time job. Then you can take your Advanced Individual Training the next summer, be paid for that too, and be home in time to attend college, business or vocational school in September. That's two summers of full-time employment, and two years of part-time employment.

Dear Gusher Staff,

Thank you for the excellent job you put forth. I know it was hard, and I know I was impossible at times, but we did it, and we did it in style. Remember all the deadlines, candy, and ads? Well, this is the end result after adding all that up plus a lot of dedication and love. You all stood beside me when I needed you and sometimes helped me up. Sometimes I felt like giving it all up, and I know you did, too, but we did it because deep down inside all of us wanted this book and now we have it. To the four little heads that helped me a lot, I would like to give a special thanks, along with those veteran members that I used as a crutch all year long. Thanks for the support and care you showed me.

Love and Good Luck,

J. J.

Thank you for the fun and laughter that always echoed in the halls.

Thank you for the tradition, the experience, and the friends.

But thank you most of all for giving us a place to begin.

Dear Miss Whitehead,

The Gusher Staff wishes to give to you a warm "Thank You" for all that you have done for us. This book would not have been possible without you. Times were hard, and so were you when you had to be. At times you showed us the hard-working, stern side of you, and then at other times you let us get to know you as a person, a friend. Your humor, knowledge, and leadership have helped us all grow and mature. Thank you again for being a leader and also a friend.

Love and Best Wishes,
'83 Gusher Staff

Dear Glen,

Thank you so much for being such a good friend, ear, and roomie. I can't count the number of times I cried on your shoulder, shared news of special dates, or just sat and talked and laughed. Remember Momma Maypole, Kahlua, and wishing certain untouchables weren't so untouchable? How can you forget the N.O./B.R. weekend (What a Joe!; Bill on the steps; big Forrest; pigeon in Pat O's; the frigid man in Jackson Square; being "borderline obnoxious"; Bob (my 1995 fiancé; "exciting" Adam Ant and George Thorogood on the trips down and back; basketball players(?); swimmers(!); "Yes, Napoleon's body is in the Cabildo, stupid!"; eating till we were stuffed, and then eating some more; and the birds with no necks at Pat O's.!!). Or how about Sadie Hawkins' (daquiri's all over the floor); Senior Party (our little orange doctor kits; 69 buttons); going for both of them at Edward's St; "somebody bought this round for you, but asked me not to tell you who"; borrowing my DL glove in Advanced Math!

I sure am going to miss you next year, but we're the type that stay friends for life, so we won't have to say good bye for long. Thank you again.

Love Always,

Karen

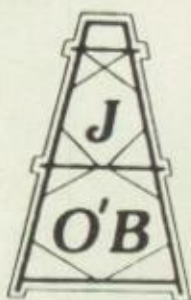

P.S. Thank Mama Leoni, Popsicle, Susie, and Danny for me!

In Loving Memory of William Henry Teal

Death is but a resting era of life;
The physical may be gone, but
The spirit and memory of our loved ones
Will last through all eternity.

Dear General,
It has been a great pleasure to receive your kind letter of the 10th inst. and in reply to inform you that the same has been forwarded to the proper authorities.
Very respectfully,
J. Williams

Dear Barbara,

It has been so nice visiting with
you this spring!
Congratulations on your graduation and best wishes for the future. Fondly,

J. Williams

Dear Barbara,
I hope you are happy and successful in your new career.
I will miss
you very much.
Love,
J. Williams

Barbara, we have finally made it. It's seems as though time is just flying by. You are a very sweet and wonderful person.
 Take good care of yourself & have a fun summer. Don't forget me.
 Hopefully I'll see you around.
 Love ya,
 J Thomas

Barbara,
 You are one of the nicest people I've ever met. You care about people and that's important in life. Thanks for being a friend. It's been great. Call me okay!
 Just in case you forget - 221-1243.
 Remember - you can be
 or do whatever you want. Go for it.
 Thanks again for everything.
 Your friend always,
 Mary Jo
